A Collection of Exciting Learning Opportunities and Nature Center News

January-February 2015

First Day Hikes

Thursday, January 1st at 11am

Barr Lake State Park will be participating in America's State Parks First Day Hikes 2015 and we hope you'll join us. With all 50 states participating, the nationwide effort will help promote healthy lifestyles and encourage year-round recreation at our state parks.

Starting time: 11 a.m.

Meeting place: Nature Center

Description: 3-mile easy hike with opportunity to observe all types of wildlife, including many species of birds. Dogs are welcome!

Barr Lake's staff encourages you to start the New Year by enjoying the outdoors and seeing the eagles. Spotting scopes will be available for visitors to use on the hikes.

Christmas Bird Count for Kids

Monday, January 19th 9am-2pm

Meet at the Meadowlark Picnic Pavilion, Barr Lake State Park, 13401 Picadilly Rd, Brighton CO 80603

Join local families and a naturalist from RMBO for the Christmas Bird Count held especially for kids! They may be off from school for MLK day, but they'll still spend time learning about their world. The event gets kids involved in the celebrated tradition of annual bird counts, started by the National Audubon Society more than 100 years ago to encourage bird conservation.

- Discover local birds that tough out the harsh Colorado winter
- Learn what it means to be a "citizen scientist"
- Explore the outdoors and practice birding with experienced birders
- Enjoy a live raptor presentation during the closing celebration

Ages 3-18 welcome! Kids must be accompanied by an adult $3 per person plus $7 per vehicle park pass. Warm drinks, snack and loaner binoculars provided.

Pre-registration is required.

RSVP to Tyler Edmondson, 303-659-4348 ext. 15 or tyler.edmondson@rmbo.org

Your Ticket to the Great Outdoors!

The 2015 annual parks pass is available now for purchase at Barr Lake and provides entry into 42 amazing Colorado State Parks. The Annual Park Pass is $70 and the Aspen Leaf Pass is $60 for Colorado-resident seniors at least 64 years old. Both passes are valid for at least one year from their purchase date.

Give the gift that keeps on giving.....the great outdoors.

Happy New Year

Barr Lake Nature Center is open Thursday, January 1st from 9am-4pm. Join us for hot cider and cookies, get your new parks pass, and start or continue the tradition of enjoying the great outdoors on New Year's Day.

Martin Luther King Day Celebration

Monday, January 19th 10am-12pm

Are you looking for something fun to do with your kids on this holiday? Please join us as the Nature Center will be open this day. We'll have kids' crafts all day and a nature hike at 10am. The three-mile hike will explore the wildlife refuge and we'll observe our roosting bald eagle population.

New Volunteer Open House

Saturday, February 14th 10am-noon

Have you always wanted to contribute your unique talents, skills, and passions to helping others? Do you think that being in the outdoor field for a career might be for you? If so, we have the perfect opportunity for you! Barr Lake is recruiting volunteers to:

- Entrance station host
- Friends of Barr Lake event coordinator
- School leader
- Park maintenance
- Nature Center host
- Trail host

We provide initial, on-the-job, and level two training sessions, ongoing educational opportunities, unique experiences, a free Colorado State Parks pass (after you complete 48 service hours), and a great team of current staff and volunteers with whom to work! Volunteer applications are available at the Nature Center, Wednesday-Saturday 9am-4pm and Sunday 11am-4pm and at the Volunteer Open House.

Park staff and veteran volunteers will share some basic information and be on hand to answer questions. This Open House will acquaint you with the limitless volunteer activities available at Barr Lake State Park!

$7 daily or annual parks pass required for all programs

Bald Eagle Nesting

The habitat of Barr Lake's wildlife refuge is perfect for one pair of nesting bald eagles.

It has large old cottonwoods for roosting, rich food sources, and little disturbance. A pair of bald eagles has been observed in the refuge, every year, since 1986. As of 2014, Barr Lake bald eagles have fledged 48 young! Make a date to come to Barr Lake in January and February as they are excellent months for bald eagle viewing. In January, eagles begin courtship behavior including tumbling in mid-air, nest building, and staying close together. In mid-February, and often coinciding with Valentine's Day, bald eagles lay one to three eggs. The parents take turns incubating the eggs, so you are practically guaranteed to see an eagle on the nest. If all goes well, eaglets hatch in late March or early April.

Join us for a unique opportunity to view our bald eagle population at its peak! Our guided hike travels to the gazebo and back.
